

Hello Everyone,

I would like to take a quick moment to say "Thank you" to all of you I have known for years and those of you I have come to know since we opened Southern Belle just 10 months ago. Due to your support of our efforts at Southern Belle, I am proud to announce that we have been Nominated as one of the 5 Best American Restaurants in Shanghai, according to CityWeekend Magazine – http://www.cityweekend.com.cn/contests/shanghai_restaurant_bar_contest/.

This email is NOT a request for any of you to vote for Southern Belle. You do this weekly by coming back and bringing new visitors to our establishment. With your ongoing support & feedback through forums such as the CityWeekend awards and on the floor at Southern Belle, we are working to exceed your expectations and to earn your continued patronage.

Again, I sincerely wish thank all of you from all of us at Southern Belle.

Sincerely yours,

Sean
